Frequently Asked Questions

Pre-existing medical conditions

1. What are pre-existing medical conditions?

Pre-existing medical conditions refer to medical or physical conditions which have needed consultation or treatment including any recurring, chronic or continuing illness or condition before the start of the journey. Some examples are asthma, high blood pressure, diabetes, heart conditions, stroke, cancer, lupus.

2. Who is eligible to apply?

A person aged 18 years and above with pre-existing medical conditions that are stable and controlled can apply. The applicant has to meet a set of medical related conditions to qualify for cover:

- (a) Following your treating doctor's advice on medication, medical tests, treatment or surgery.
- (b) No medical condition or symptom which you have not consulted a doctor or pending medical test, diagnosis, treatment or surgery.
- (c) Not required to receive treatment at a hospital's Accident and Emergency Department more than once in the last 12 months.
- (d) Not required to stay in a hospital as an inpatient for more than once, or for duration which is not more than three days in a row in the last 12 months.

Persons below 18 years can apply for cover by their parents or legal guardian.

3. If I am eligible for cover, will all of my pre-existing conditions be insured?

Your pre-existing conditions are covered so long as you meet those conditions mentioned in (2) above, subject to the terms and conditions of the policy. However, terminal illness, HIV, sexually transmitted diseases, pregnancy and its related conditions and mental illness are not covered.

4. Must I provide information of all my pre-existing medical conditions or produce a doctor's report to buy the insurance?

You do not need to furnish such information, you are eligible to apply so long as you meet the conditions in 2 (a) to (d) above.

5. What happens if my medical condition changes after I buy the insurance?

If any of your pre-existing conditions worsen within the 30 days before the start of the trip and your doctor has advised you to see a specialist, undergo investigative test, surgery, change in treatment or medication, you will not be covered. Please notify us with supporting documents from your doctor to cancel the policy and we will refund your paid premium in full.

6. What are the coverage differences between the TravelEasy Pre-Ex and the regular TravelEasy plans?

A person insured under the TravelEasy Pre-Ex policy is covered for all the benefits of the regular TravelEasy insurance including pre-existing medical conditions under the "Pre-Ex Critical Care" benefit. Claims not relating to pre-existing medical conditions are covered under Section 1 to 51 of TravelEasy Pre-Ex benefits such as - loss of luggage, travel delays, insolvency of travel operators. TravelEasy Pre-Ex policy only covers for trips which are up to 30 days duration, extensions are not permitted.

7. What is not covered by TravelEasy Pre-Ex insurance?

There is no cover in the following scenarios:

- Receiving or waiting for medical tests or treatment for any medical condition or set of symptoms that have not been diagnosed
- Travelling against the advice of a medical practitioner or travelling to get medical treatment abroad
- Terminal medical condition

- Pre-existing medical conditions that worsen within the 30 days before the start of the trip for which a doctor has advised to seek medical consultation or undergo investigative test, surgery, or change in treatment, prescribed medication or dosage.
 - Overseas outpatient medical treatment
 - Medical expenses incurred in Singapore
- Please refer to the policy for full terms, conditions and exclusions.

Others

8. Can foreigners purchase TravelEasy Pre-Ex insurance?

Foreigners holding an employment pass or work permit and living in Singapore can apply so long as it is for a round trip commencing and returning to Singapore within the period of insurance.

9. Are there any country excluded from cover?

All countries are covered unless expressly excluded.

10. If I decide not to proceed with my trip, can I recover the premium paid for my TravelEasy Pre-Ex policy?

You will be entitled to a refund of premium provided there is no claim under the policy and travel has not commenced. The refund premium allowed shall be the balance after taking into account the minimum retained premium of $50. If your policy premium is $50 and below, there is no refund.

11. If I did not seek medical treatment for an injury or illness during my overseas travel, can I recover medical expenses incurred in Singapore after my return to Singapore?

Yes, provided it is not a pre-existing condition and the injury or illness occurred during the overseas travel. Medical treatment must be sought within 72 hours after your return to Singapore and incurred within 30 days from the date you return to Singapore.

12. What do you mean by public transport under the public transport double cover?

Public transport means any licensed and scheduled land, sea or air transport which has fixed and established routes and which any member of the public can join at a recognised stop and pay a fare. This excludes taxis, private hire vehicles such as buses or coaches that are chartered or arranged as part of a tour even if the services are regularly scheduled.

13. Does TravelEasy Pre-Ex cover if the travel agency goes bankrupt?

We will cover all irrecoverable costs up to the plan limit if your STB licensed (NATAS registered travel agency) becomes insolvent. Provided that the insurance is bought at least 3 days before the departure date and the insolvency is not already known to the public when you make the trip booking and the insurance purchase, whichever date occurs later.
